

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Election, Tuesday, Nov. 7th.

CONGRESSIONAL TICKET.

For Congress—First District—
CHALLENGER G. WILLIAMS, of Rock.

General Bragg's popularity is getting pretty badly upset in his district.

Blaine is shaking up the drybones in Maine, and is doing it thoroughly.

Miss Ida Lewis has kept the Lime Rock lighthouse, Newport, for 20 years.

The Congressional band seems to have struck up a lively tune in Wisconsin.

Bon Butler is giving more trouble than money to the Massachusetts Democrats. That is Bon's best hold.

Between internal division and the temperance question, the Democrats are in hot water—too hot for ease.

The recent conversion of Luke Blackburn, of Kentucky, appears to be a failure. He now wants to go to Congress.

It is claimed that Alexander Stephens does not create enthusiasm in Georgia, and some Democrats are trying to defeat him.

The worst thing that could happen to the Republican party, would be to have anything to do with the notorious Chalmers.

The nominee in the Seventh district will be the Bull of the Wisconsin delegation. He will be all this, and yet make a good Congressman.

Ex-Senator D. R. Atchison, who was President of the United States for thirty-six hours, during the close of President Polk's administration and the inauguration of General Taylor, is 75 years old and lives on a farm in Missouri.

The Democrats in Tennessee who favor paying the State debt, adopted a temperance plank in their platform. The Democrats who favored repudiating the debt adopted a free whisky platform. That is just about the size of it.

The best platform yet adopted, and one that stands as a model, is the one adopted by the Sixteenth Congressional district in Ohio. It simply reads: "Resolved, That we beat them this year." That means business and is better than a dozen planks.

They have a new name at Oshkosh for the members of the Second Regiment, Wisconsin National Guard. The regiment has been quartered there for a few days, and their conduct warrants the people in calling them "military rowdies" and "night marauders and society disturbers." The Second Regiment evidently thinks that every kind of conduct is in order at Oshkosh.

The Republican Congressional Convention of the Seventh district met at Baraboo on Wednesday, and on the 20th ballot nominated Mr. Cyrus M. Butt, of Viroqua, for Congress. This result was unexpected. Early in the canvass Mr. Butt was not thought of as a candidate. He lives in Vernon county, and at the last minute almost, he was brought out to prevent Mr. Thomas, of Prairie du Chien, from taking the Vernon delegates. The trick was a sharp one and won.

It is surprising that with the admitted necessity of some method of preventing pension fraud, the system advanced in Mr. Bentley's report is not adopted. This provides for a commission in each Congressional District to consider claims. It is not an expensive system, and it would be efficient. Republican-Sentinel.

This plan of examining claims for pensions as well as those who were already drawing pensions, was suggested by the Gazette three years ago, and some time before the matter was discussed in Mr. Bentley's report. It would be an excellent system, for by it many fraudulent pensions would be stopped. Some plan of this kind must be adopted if there is to be any reform in the pension business.

The Prohibition Convention of the First Congressional district will meet at Elkhorn tomorrow. A dispatch from that place to the Republican-Sentinel says: "From what is learned from many points in this district, there is every indication that there will be a large and enthusiastic meeting of delegates at the First Congressional District Convention held here on September 1, by the Independent Temperance party, it being desired at that time to make it the most effective and significant meeting of the campaign in Wisconsin. Following the convention will be a mass-meeting addressed by S. D. Hastings, of Madison, and others, who will endeavor to awake all to the importance of the prohibitory movement in this State."

There are great many speculations in regard to what will be the result of the Congressional Convention in the Third district. It is claimed that Mr. Keyes will have 14 from Dane, 6 from Green, and some from Iowa, enough, in all, to give him 22, which will nominate. A dispatch from Dodgeville, probably sent in the interest of Hazelton, gives this view of the situation: "Hazelton will have Grant (10), Lafayette (6), and Iowa, (16), solid. There is also every indication that he will have the northern district of Green (2). While Keyes will go into convention with Dane (14), and Green (4). The first ballot will probably be Hazelton, 24; Keyes, 18. There is no present reason to doubt his nomination on the first ballot."

About the queerest and the oddest thing we have heard of during the heated term, is that General Chalmers, of Mississippi, the hero of the Fort Fisher massacre, will vote with the Republican side of the House if he is elected to Congress. If this be true, we may next expect to hear Hamburg Butler knocking at the door of the Republican party. *Janesville Gazette.*Why is this any "queerer" than General Mosby, Longstreet, Mahone and Key? You have had to buy them all. In Chalmers' case the consideration was $17,000 from Hubbell's exchequer. In Mosby's and Longstreet's cases, the consideration was a consulship. In Key's case, a cabinet office. Suppose you offer Hamburg Butler one of the positions recently vacated by Honorables Dorsey, or Bradley, or Howgate. The penitentiary door is open for them all, and their places must be filled. This is merely a suggestion. Madison Democrat.

The answer of the Democrat goes to corroborate the statement of the Gazette and other Republican papers made time and time again, that any Democrat can be bought for an office. Office is what the Democrats want, and the highest bidder always takes them.

The question is virtually settled that the Milwaukee Exposition will not be opened on Sundays. For some time that question was discussed by the board of managers, which was unable to agree. Public sentiment and a majority of the exhibitors were opposed to Sunday exhibitions, and some of the latter went so far as to give notice that if the Exposition was thrown open on Sundays they would withdraw their exhibits. With these facts confronting them, seven of the directors signed a paper in which they objected to Sunday exhibitions which may be regarded as a settlement of the matter. The directors have decided wisely, and public opinion will stand by them. It was even far too much, to turn a portion of the exposition building into a bar-room to suit the beer-drinking and Sunday-arousing element in Milwaukee, and to have decided to hold Sunday exhibitions, would have been adding insult to injury. Some regard for public sentiment, if not for the sanctity of the Sabbath, should have influenced every director to vote against Sunday exhibitions.

The ground that many from the country would have visited the exposition on Sunday, who otherwise would not attend, is no argument. There are six days in a week for such business, and any one in the country who cared enough for the exposition to go to Milwaukee to see it, would go there during the week. As to the working people in the city, they will have plenty of time in the evenings, but if they do not regard this sufficient, the leading business men and manufacturers there will consult their own interests in following the very wise and philanthropic example of some of the merchants in Chicago, by giving their employees a few hours every Saturday afternoon, which they can devote to the exposition.

CONDENSED NEWS.

A heavy snow storm has been raging in Louisville all last night and this morning. George Rogers killed his wife and then himself, at Haverhill, Mass., yesterday, for no known cause.

Mr. Angelo, of Milo, Me., was stopped by two highwaymen yesterday, shot in the jaw, and relieved of $180.

The gist of later dispatches is that it was Mr. A. C. Hessing's nephew who was killed in Mexico, and not himself.

A Mississippi negro named Moss, recently gave birth to four babies. Her husband wishes his name had been "Rollingstone."

Six prisoners in the Camden, N. J., jail, escaped yesterday while exercising in the rotunda. Three were captured, but the others are still at large.

Mrs. Honey, of Thorford, Mich., drowned herself and her 5-year-old child in a wash-tub because the latter became a helpless cripple through the ravages of measles.

The trot for the special purse of $3,000 at Hartford yesterday, between Edwin Thorne and Clingstone, was won by the former. Many noted turfmen witnessed the contest.

Matthew Millard, a wealthy merchant at Palo, Mich., has been arrested on the charge of poisoning his wife, who died last May. There is said to be a scandal connected with the affair.

President Arthur visited the training ship New Hampshire, yesterday, and later was a guest of the West Island Fishing Club. Tomorrow he will be a guest of the Squantum Club, of Providence.

Colonel John E. Tourtelotte, U. S. A., has been detailed to escort the Marquis of Lorne, and the Princess Louise from Chicago, where they will arrive on September 6, to British Columbia by the way of San Francisco.

There were fifty-two new cases of yellow fever and three deaths at Brownsville, yesterday. Eight deaths from the disease are reported from Matamoros. At Pensacola there have been but fourteen cases to date, and the prospects are brightening.

Should General Bragg be defeated in the Democratic convention of the Second Wisconsin district, and then elect to run as an independent candidate, the Republicans will nominate Captain Enos, postmaster at Waukesha, who, it is claimed, can be elected under those circumstances.

The Hon. G. S. Orth was unanimously nominated for his fourth term in Congress by the Republicans of the Ninth Indiana District yesterday. The Democrats of the Eighteenth Illinois District renominated Wm. R. Morrison. In the Fourth Indiana District the Republicans nominated Wm. J. Johnson, Moses A. Mc-

Coid was renominated by the Republicans of the First Iowa District. The Republicans of the Thirtieth Indiana District renominated W. H. Calkins.

SERGEANT MASON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Judge Advocate General Swain, to whom was referred the petition of Sergeant Mason's counsel and others, filed with the President for the release of Mason from the Albany penitentiary, reiterated his opinion that the proceedings of the Mason court-martial were irregular, and that his confinement under its sentence was illegal. The Secretary of War adheres to this contrary opinion. No action will be taken until the President returns.

INGERSOLL'S ARGUMENT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll has returned from the seaside to talk to the star-route jury. He will occupy Friday, and already there is an awakened interest in the trial on that account. It is safe to predict that enough people will be standing at the court house door that morning when it is opened to crowd the court room to overflowing. The Colonel looks as brown as a gypsy, and is as jolly as ever. He has no doubts as to the verdict, and has a satisfied look of happiness such as might be expected of a man who had never heard of the Ivanhoe Mine, and in whose hands did not rest the honor or disgrace of one of the most prominent men in the political history of the past decade.

TAMMANY.

New York, Aug. 20.—On Tuesday evening of next week, a meeting will be held in Tammany hall, to decide whether or not that organization will send a delegation to the Democratic State convention at Syracuse, on the 21st of September. There are many members of Tammany Hall who still openly express the opinion that it would be better for the organization not to send a delegation to Syracuse, but to conduct an open, independent warfare in that city for local offices, and aid the anti-monopoly State ticket. It is now believed, however, that the opinion of the majority of the members entitled to vote at the meeting next Tuesday will be in favor of sending a delegation.

THE ELEGANT—Little plumed soap top on "TAMMANY" makes it the cleanest, most perfect, and most recherche of all toilet requisites. Get a 5-cent sample. Sold by Prentice &amp; Evenson.

SUCCESS CERTAIN.

West Bend, Aug. 20.—The two Delany delegates, elected at Kewaskum yesterday to represent the Northern Assembly District at the Congressional Convention here next Wednesday, gives Delaney four delegates out of the five from Washington county. He has ten from Washington county, which assures him half of the Convention on the first ballot—without any from Waukesha county. Speaking with Mr. Delaney at Kewaskum, he expressed himself as follows: "I do not have any doubt but I will be nominated." The victory of the Delaney men at Waukesha Monday night is taken as conclusive evidence that he will have enough votes to nominate him. The Bragg men still keep up their spirits, but they seem to be counting without their host.

THE NARROW PREJUDICE—Which a few people hold against a patent medicine, only because its formula isn't written in Latin, which they can't read, is narrow-minded, and not in keeping with the progress of the age. Zorress will cure every case of Dyspepsia and Biliousness if the directions are followed. Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

A WAR SCENE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The attractions of General Sherman's office in the War Department were enhanced to-day by the exhibition of a large painting representing a battery of artillery going into action on the brow of a hill behind a line of Indian skirmishers. Every detail is carefully brought out by artist Walker, even to the brass buttons, shoulder-knots, and waving plumes of the artillerymen. Walker will be remembered as the painter of the large historical battlepiece on the west side of the Senate wing of the Capitol, representing the storming of Chapultepec during the Mexican war. It is his purpose to produce a companion piece of the artillery scene, showing a squadron of cavalry and a regiment of infantry of the United States in a similar array. The idea of exhibiting the picture in the room of the General of the army is that they may be seen and criticised by army officers prior to being offered for sale to the United States.

States. The price asked for the set is fixed at $7,500, and it is probable that a favorable recommendation will be made to Congress at the next session.

MATTERS AT MADISON.

MADISON, Aug. 20.—The bids for furnishing paper for the State for the ensuing year were to-day opened by the Printing Commissioners. The contract was awarded to the J. W. Butler Paper Company, of Milwaukee, the lowest bidder.

The bidders were G. H. Taylor &amp; Co., of Chicago; Bradner, Smith &amp; Co., Chicago; H. Niedecken &amp; Co., Milwaukee, and the J. W. Butler paper Co., Milwaukee. The latter company was $307.32 lower than the lowest bid of the other competitors on the first class of bids, and $2,424 lower on the second class.

The State Board of Supervisors of the Charitable and Penal Institutions to-day audited the expenses of those institutions for the past month, as follows: State Hospital for the Insane, $27,145.55; Deaf and Dumb Institute, $2,201.16; Institute for the Education of the Blind, 1,492.21; Northern Wisconsin Hospital for the Insane, 10,528.29; State Prison, 8,201.20; Industrial School for Boys at Wausau, 10,711.72.

MISS EMMA BOND.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Aug. 20.—Contrary to the expectations of her physicians, Miss Bond has been resting easy to-day, and her condition is somewhat improved to-night, although Drs. Cornell and Rockwell have no hope of her recovery on this temporary improvement. They seem more cheerful, and their cheerfulness is being infused into the people, and there is not so much talk or excitement as heretofore. Sheriff Haines says that the prisoners will be turned loose to-morrow, they agreeing to return to his custody if Miss Bond should again be visited with this morning's ailment. This morning a paper was circulated asking subscriptions of money to raise a fund to be used by Mr. Bond in the prosecution of the parties who outraged his daughter.

GOV. ORTIZ.

TUCSON, Ari. T., Aug. 20.—The Star's Hermosillo advises say Gen. Carbo, commander of the Zone, accompanied by ex-Gov. Torris, are hourly expected in that city with authority from the Federal Government to supersede Ortiz and deprive him of all authority. It is said 500 troops accompany the envoys to meet this emergency. Ortiz is drafting troops in all directions, and threatens resistance to the last extremity. It is believed that this will precipitate a conflict, which will lead to a revolution.
